

THE SKIN.

Is an important factor in keeping good health; if it does not act in the way intended by nature, its functions are performed by other organs, the kidneys and the lungs; and the result is a breakdown of general health.

Swift's Specific

Is the remedy of nature to stimulate the skin to proper action. It never fails in this, and always accomplishes the purpose.

NOTHING SUCCEEDS LIKE SUCCESS.

The reason RADAM'S MICROBE KILLER is the most wonderful medicine is because it has never failed in any instance, no matter what the disease, from Leprosy to the simplest disease known to the human system.

The scientific men of to-day claim and prove that every disease is

Caused by Microbes, —AND—

Radman's Microbe Killer

Exterminates the microbes and drives them out of the system, and when that is done you cannot have an ache or pain. No matter what the disease, whether a simple case of malaria fever or a combination of diseases, we cure them all at the same time, as we treat all diseases constitutionally.

Asthma, Consumption, (starrh, Bronchitis Rheumatism, Kidney and Liver Diseases, Chills and Fever, Female Troubles, in all its forms, and in fact, every disease known to the human system.

A COMFORTABLE HOUSE.

A Frame Dwelling Whose Cost Is Estimated at $2,000.

This house is 23 feet across front and 30 feet deep. It has a parlor 12x15 feet; reception hall 7x10 feet; dining-room 13x14 feet; kitchen 11x13 feet; pantry 4x13 feet; family room 13x13 feet with alcove 7x13 feet; two chambers, one 10x13 feet with alcove

4x8 feet, and the other 9x14 feet, and a bath-room 5x10 feet.

The parlor contains a fire-place across one corner and is divided from the reception hall by portieres.

The dining-room contains a china closet and a bay with three large windows.

The kitchen contains sink, boiler and gas outlet for gas stove.

The floors of the reception hall, kitchen, pantry and bath-room will be of maple. The mantel will be of red oak, tile facing and will cost $50. The stained glass will cost $2 per square foot.

The reception hall, stairs, parlor and dining-room will be finished in red oak. All other rooms will be stained or painted as the owner may desire.

This house will look well painted an olive green with all trimmings a shade or two darker. The shingles will be dipped in creosote stain to match. The carving shown will be of the latest style (composition carving) and is a fair simile of wood carving.

The balusters and grille on front porch will be of a neat turned pattern. The chimneys will be of red pressed brick capped with a smooth sand stone. The shingles will be of the "A. O. G." brand, and the siding will be 3 in. O. G. The house will be sheathed with 5 in. matched fence flooring with building paper between that and the siding to ensure a good, warm house. The studs will be 2x4 in., 16 in. to centers. First floor joists, 2x10 in., second floor joists, 2x10 in., 16 in. to centers, attic joist, 2x8 in., 16 in. to centers, roof rafters 2x6 in., sills 8x10 in., rubble stone foundation 18 in. thick. Basement to be 7 ft. high, concreted 3 in. thick. First and second stories, 8 ft. 6 in. high.

The house will be piped for gas and furnace.

The basement contains laundry, coal-bins, cellar and furnace room.

As a whole, this is a square, solid and plain building, just such as would please a person who does not desire much show. GEORGE A. W. KINTZ.

Stopping Cracks in Metal.

A crack in a piece of metal is prevented from extending further by the well-known means of drilling a hole where the rent ends; but when the hole is not bored on just that spot, the crack is apt to continue beyond the hole. To facilitate the search of the exact point, Revue Industrielle recommends moistening the cracked surface with petroleum, then wipe it and then immediately rub it with chalk. The oil that has penetrated into the crack exudes and thus indicates with precision where the crack stops.

South Africa's Diamond Mines.

Geologists have proved that the diamond mines of South Africa are situated in vents or chimneys varying from 70 to 1,500 feet in diameter.

RELIGIOUS AND EDUCATIONAL.

—Have thy tools ready—God will find thee work.—Kingsley.

—The more spiritual is a man's religion, the more expansive and broad it always is.—Phillips Brooks.

—Every soul should have its own holy-holies. The truths of Christ are worth keeping, and the way to keep them is to ponder them.—Henry.

—The lands granted for educational purposes, both for common schools and universities, throughout the Union, have, so far, amounted to nearly one hundred million acres.

—Great Things Would Happen.—What wonderful things would happen in the church, if so many people who ought to bring oxen to the altar wouldn't try to get of with pigeons.—Ram's Horn.

—As we must spend time in cultivating our earthly friendships if we are to have their blessings, so we must spend time in cultivating the fellowship and companionship of Christ.—Drummond.

—Out of 900 foreign missionaries at present in India it is said the oldest is an American, Rev. John Newton, of the Presbyterian Church, the veteran missionary at Lahore, who, at the age of 78, is still a worker in his chosen field.

—How vast the great sun is that rules the day; how tiny the little dewdrop on the leaf! Yet the little globe holds and reflects the greater in perfect beauty. So can the humblest soul hold and reflect the Sun of Righteousness.—The Churchman.

—The true Christian is a reformer, a worker, a soldier and a sufferer for Christ. The Scriptures continually speak of him as having a work to do and a battle to fight. He is to take up his cross, put on the whole armor of God, endure hardness as a good soldier in the battle against all iniquity in this present evil world.—N. W. Christian Advocate.

—A number of Missouri churches hold roll-call services once a year. The pastor calls the roll of members. Those present respond by scriptural quotations or brief words of greeting. Any who can not attend sends letters or messages, which are read. When the names of those who have died within the year are called there are memorial verses read.

—Columbia College is to be enriched by a legacy from the late D. B. Fayerweather, which, it is expected, may reach $300,000. One distinguishing feature of nearly all bequests of this character is that they are intended to make education more practical and to develop the idea that knowledge helps not only in the intellectual but in the industrial departments of our social economy.

—Some Jewish students in Southern Russia who embraced Christianity in order to be permitted to pursue their studies at the University of Odessa have been thrown into conversion by a decree that Jewish converts shall be on the same footing, as to education, as Jews who retain their own religion. The converts dare not apply for readmission to the Hebrew faith, as they would thereupon be prosecuted as apostates. Their only hope is in flight from Russia.

—The cloven foot is often covered with patent leather.—Ram's Horn.

—The way to fame is like the way to Heaven, through much tribulation.—Sterne.

—Very few men despise the devil so vehemently in private as in public.—Denver Road.

—Misfortunes are like sky-rockets, which fall as often on innocent people as on any others.

—The man who has never been dissatisfied can never realize contentment.—Elmira Gazette.

—There is not much difference between carelessness extravagance and a hole in the pocket.—Ram's Horn.

—Some men are so stingy they expect you to pay rent on the place you occupy in their esteem.—Bangor News.

—"No, there are several styles of wickedness he has not heard of yet."—Indianapolis Journal.

—We might as well try to attempt to bring pleasure out of pain, as to unite indulgence in sin with the enjoyment of happiness.—Hodge.

—If a man serves him faithfully six days in the week, the devil doesn't care much whether he goes to church on Sunday or not.—N. Y. Herald.

—A Callous Organ—Bessie.—When George left her she cried as if her heart would break. Florence (sweetly)—How presumptuous! Just as if it would.—American Grocer.

—Bingo—If I were rich for just one little hour! Kingsley—I should like to know what good that would do you. Bingo—Well, I'd spend just about fifty-five minutes in making my property over to my wife.—Harper's Bazar.

—"Dress, dear brethren, don count for nuffin in dis war world. Many a man wot wears a $600 sealskin overcoat ain't half ez respectable in de sight of de Lawd ez de po' African savage wot doan wear nuffin but a happy smile."—N. Y. Herald.

—Quidnunc—Are you mourning Scribbler? I notice you always wear black now, when you used always to wear light colors. Scribbler—O, no; I'm not in mourning, but I bought me one of those fountain pens a little while ago, and I find it cheaper to wear black.—Boston Courier.

—How She Remembered Him.—Husband—How did you get along while I was away, my dear? Wife—Pretty well. Every night I got out some of your old clothes and strewed them around the floor, tracked mud all over the stairs and swore at myself occasionally, and it seemed really like home.—N. Y. Sun.

—A Desirable Catch.—Mr. Million.—"I am afraid that young man who is so attentive to you is as poor as a church mouse. He smokes wretched cigars—can't cost over five cents. Miss Million—no, indeed, pa, he pays twenty-five cents a piece for them, but the dealers cheat him." Mr. Million—"Then it's all right. He's only a fool."—N. Y. Weekly.

You are in a Bad Fix.

But we will cure you if you will pay us. Nervous and Debilitated, suffering from Nervous Debility, Seminal Weakness, and all the effects of early evil habits, or later indiscretions, which lead to Premature Decay, Consumption or Insanity, should send for and read the "Book of Life," giving particulars of a home cure. Sent (sealed) by addressing Dr. Parker's Medical and Surgical Institute, 151 North Spruce street Nashville, Tenn. They guarantee a cure or no pay.—The Sunday Morning, Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use and after taking ten bottles, found herself sound and well, now does her own housework and is as well as she ever was. Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at Budwell, Christian & Barbee's drug store; large bottles 50c. and $1.00. tu, th, sat

She Was Completely Cured.

A daughter of my customer suffered from suppressed menstruation, and her health was completely wrecked. At my suggestion she used one bottle of Bradford's Female Regulator, which cured her. J. W. HELLMUS, Water Valley, Mississippi.
